Format

Winner Of Coin Toss Will Have The Option To "See Or Show" On The Diddle.

When diddling, the dart that is closest to the center will determine the winning dart. You may continue throwing until one dart sticks in the target. If the first player hits the center hole in the bull's-eye, the dart will be removed to allow the other players the opportunity to tie. In the event they are the same distance from the center of the bull's-eye, the players will continue diddling and reverse the order until a winner is determined.

Team Event will be Double Elimination format with race to 2 games (1 of 501, 1 of Cricket and the Final game if needed rediddle winners choice.

All Singles and Doubles events are Double Elimination Format.

Singles and Doubles are a Race to 2 except Level 1, which is a Race to 3.

Doubles events will use the Freeze Rule unless specified differently.

All events (except Pink Ladies) will be classified based upon criteria allowing men and women to participate.
